Short, Readable Items of Interest to All.

Four-fifths of the men in the fourth regiment are said to have signed a petition to be mustered out.

The City Council of Paris has brought suit against the banks of that city for back taxes amounting to $50,000.

Georgetown will vote on the question as to whether they shall build a new town hall or not at the November election.

A Henderson roller flour mill is shipping 1,500 barrels of flour to Belfast, Ireland. This mill has quite recently shipped to Great Britain between 6,000 and 7,000 barrels of flour.

Four soldiers whose names have not been found out, but members of the Second Kentucky regiment, literally cut to pieces the furniture in the parlor of a Lexington boarding house.

County Judge Wm. G. Ramsey, of Bath county, immediately after his return home from the Grand Lodge of F. & A. M. at Louisville was taken suddenly ill of neuralgia of the heart and died at once.

The farmers of Bath county will hold a corn show at Owingsville October 22. These exhibitions always attract a large attendance, and the corn shown is the finest that good old Kentucky soil can produce.

In Georgetown drayage costs the merchants nothing. The Southern railway, in order to get business, inaugurated the plan of paying for the handling of goods and the Cincinnati Southern had to follow or be left out in the cold.

The soldiers of the Second Kentucky regiment in camp at Lexington, waiting to be mustered out, are compelled to sleep in tents without floors or straw and the physicians say half of the men will die if there is not something done soon.

The Dear Tie Company, of Breckinridge county, has secured a contract for 500 cross ties, which must be furnished eastern railroads during the coming winter, necessitating the operation of eight sawmills, and the employment of 400 men.

Geo. A. Portwood will hang at Lexington November 30th for the murder of Richard Purkins.

J. W. Bradey, aged ninety years, was married in Louisville to Miss Kate Garland, aged twenty-one.

The First National Bank of Pineville, has sold its buildings and furniture to J. R. Rice & Co. bankers of that city. This leaves but one bank at Pineville.

Scarlet fever has broken out at Independence, and the spread of the disease has become so alarming that the Board of Trustees of the public schools called a special meeting Monday and dismissed the school.

A regular battle ensued at Paintsville last week during Circuit court between Jay Draughan and John Draughan and deputy sheriffs. As a result several horses were shot and Jay Draughan was also shot, but not fatally.

Chris Moore, a young man of means and education, who was sent to the asylum from Crittenden county some time since, died at that institution last Friday. His condition was attributed by the physicians to excessive cigarette smoking.

Madison County Bonds.

County Judge P. H. Sullivan and County Attorney J. Tevis Cobb returned from Chicago Saturday, where they disposed of $112,000 worth of 4 per cent. R. N. I. & B. refunding bonds to Wendell & Co., at 103. This is pronounced the best sale of county bonds ever made in Kentucky. In 1889, these same bonds at 5 per cent. only brought par value. The saving of the one per cent. interest on these bonds amounts to $1,120 per year, or in twenty years to about twenty-five thousand dollars, including premium, to the county.—Richmond Pantagraph.

A Kentuckian Out West.

This story is told of a Kentuckian who went out West to grow up with the country. At a hotel "grouse" was among the things enumerated on the menu. He asked the waiter what it was and he said it was a bird.

"Are there many of them around here?"

"Oh, yes, sir."

"Have they wings?" asked the Kentuckian.

"Oh, yes, sir," reiterated the "coon."

"Well, you needn't bring me any of them. Any self-respecting bird that had wings and was able to fly and wouldn't leave this God-forsaken country ain't worth eating."

A man seldom gets discouraged trying to live without working.

The Louisville and Richmond Railroad.

The new purchasers of the R. N. I. & B. Railroad, which we understand will hereafter be known as the Louisville and Richmond railroad, went to Frankfort Tuesday and gave bond to Judge DuRelle for the balance of the purchase money. The gentlemen paid over to Judge DuRelle, who was the special commissioner to conduct the sale $33,750, although the money paid was not due for some time. This, with money already paid on the road, reduces the amount due from $172,000, the purchase price, to about $1,000,000. Judge DuRelle will report this action to Judge Barr in the next few days and the confirmation of the sale will likely follow. Mr. Alex Frazier, the representative of the English half of the syndicate, and his attorney, Mr. W. J. Boland, both of Toronto, Canada, returned with the Richmond gentlemen interested in the deal to this city, and on a special train, in charge of Capt. J. D. Rawlins, made a final inspection of the road Friday afternoon. About twenty Richmond ladies and gentlemen accompanied the party by invitation, and had a most enjoyable trip. Toa Register reporter, who went along, the purchasers expressed themselves as much pleased with the property, and have already planned extensive improvements, when they shall take control. A branch road into the coal and timber fields of Jackson county, new tracks and new depot at Irvine are among the projected improvements, and the Boltz Lumber Mill at Irvine, included in the recent deal, will be started at once. These, with the coming of the Black Diamond, have greatly revived things in the capital of Estill, which is getting ready to take on a healthy boom.—Richmond Register.

Money and time are the hardest burdens of life, and the happiest of all mortals are those who have more of either than they know how to use.

Matrimonial fever threatens to become epidemic in most towns of the State, one village of 600 population reporting seventeen weddings in twelve days.

Dogs are causing the sheep raisers in Adair county considerable loss, and a war of extermination is threatened against the curs.

Gov. Bradley has appointed John H. Stuart, Democrat, as a Commissioner of the Feeble Minded Institute, in place of J. B. Hendrick, Republican, resigned.

When we have practiced good actions awhile they become easy. When they are easy, we take pleasure in them; when they please us, we do them frequently, and thus it grows into a habit.

Some persons are under the impression the season for shooting partridge and pheasants open in this month, but it does not. The season opens November 15th and closes January 1st. Any person killing or having in their possession game in violation to this law before the opening of the season is subject to a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $25.00.

Judge Wm. S. Pryor, ex-Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, a man who enjoys the confidence of every Kentuckian, and a Democrat who is free from factional entanglements and can command the support of Democrats of every creed, has about yielded, it is reported, to the persuasion of his friends and will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor. With the name of Judge Pryor at the head of the ticket the Democrats need feel no concern about the result of the gubernatorial contest.—Danville Advocate.

There have been some inquiries as to when the war taxes would be repealed.

If Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines are annexed it is safe to say that the war taxes will be continued indefinitely.

Senator Allison has been interviewed on the question, and in reply to a suggestion that probably the war taxes would be reduced during the next session of Congress said:

"We don't know how much money the government is going to need, and we shall not know before the session or Congress ends. Besides, I don't know anything from which the tax ought to be taken. Certainly not from beer or tobacco."

How about the tax on checks, telegraph messages and express packages? Those are the features of the new law which causes inconvenience to the greatest number of people.

"And those are the taxes easiest to collect and surest," said the senator. "We shall not touch them."

"Not even at the extra session in the Spring?"

"I think not. I don't believe there will be any change in the tax law for year anyway."

"Do you think the war tax will be made permanent?"

"It is likely that some of the features of the law will be retained. Suppose we annex Porto Rico, Cuba the Philippines. That will admit free sugar and a number of articles from which we now derive a large revenue. We must make up for the deficiency in some way." Those who are eager to start this country on a career of imperialism should study the remarks made by Senator Allison. "Free sugar" will mean continued war taxes, and imperialism means free sugar.—Lexington Argonaut.

Winchester Court.

From 800 to 1,000 cattle on the market and quite a number were left unsold. There was quite a good demand, however, and at times the market was brisk, although what concessions were made were usually made by sellers. A lot of extra 1,000-lb feeders brought 4½ cts., which was the highest price of the day. Good heifers 3¼ to 3½ cts.; fair to common heifers, 3 to 3¼ c.; good feeders, 800 to 1,000 lbs, about 3½c; good bulls, 3 cents.

Among the sales were the following:

Waller Quisenberry bought a lot of 500-lb. heifers at 3 cents.

Chas. C. Curry bought of J. Christain 11 steers, wt. 649 lbs. at 3½c.

Mr. Gaitskill bought 20 good steer calves at $20 each. They were nearly all reds.

W. R. Tuggle sold 32 scrub steers, wt., 700 lbs., at 3½c; three bulls, wt., 700 lbs., 1,200 lbs. and 1,400 lbs. at $3. to $3.21 per cwt.; 11 heifers, wt. 490 lbs., at $15.65 each; he also bought 50 long yearling steers, wt., 865 lbs., at $24.50 each.

L. A. Woodford sold 20 feeders, wt., 865 lbs. to Walker Buckner, of Bourbon, at 4c.

Thornt Hampton sold for Mrs. James D. Lisle a lot of 35 feeders, wt., 1,000 lbs. at $4.05.

Brock & Railsback bought 25 cattle, wt., 850 lbs. of Embury & Poer at $3.70; they sold to Frank Lanter 6 heifers wt., 600 lbs., at 3½c.; the same firm bought of John Rose a lot of good 500 lb. heifers at 3 cents.

H. R. Brown sold to Charlie Geng, of Bourbon, a lot of 1,000 lb. cattle at 3½c.—Winchester Democrat.

An Old Adage Reads:

"There is a place for everything"

Now for everything to be in its place. The Louisville Dispatch should be in the home of every Democrat in the South. The Dispatch is the people's paper, owned by the people and read by the people. The Dispatch is the only Democratic paper published in Louisville. It stands squarely on the Chicago platform. It is not only in a flourishing condition after eighteen months battling against adverse circumstances, but is to-day the best medium in the South. And its motto—If you see it in the Dispatch it's so; If it's so it is always in the Dispatch, has been fully verified during the American-Spanish war, during which the superiority of its news service has been daily apparent.

The Dispatch news service is furnished by the New York Sun, the Chicago Inter-Ocean, the Northern Press Association and the Leslie Syndicate with an active salaried correspondent in every important city in the world, besides its own staff of over 300 correspondents in Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana. Get the Dispatch, it gives the news, and tells the truth about it.

The Dispatch is Kentucky's greatest paper. You should be a reader. For the next few weeks we will club with the Weekly Dispatch at the extremely low price of 75 cts.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Election day falls on November 8th this year.

W. E. Heflin is in Montgomery county on business.

The first snow of the season fell Wednesday morning.

Mad dogs are getting numerous throughout the state.

J. F. McKinney took several head of cattle below the last of last week.

James Goff was in the village Thursday.

H. T. Beatty, of Beattyville, passed through here Thursday.

Wanted—A few heads of cabbage on subscription at this office.

Mr. I. G. Jackson, a former compositor in this office, is with us again.

Call and see some of those nice pictures made by J. W. Henry, the photographer.

J. W. Henry, the photographer, is getting a very nice trade.

Asa Todd has been in Clark county on business several days of this week.

W. S. Witt, County Supt. of Schools, was in the burg Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Fox, of near Winchester, are visiting relatives in this community.

Ice formed the thickness of a window glass Wednesday night, and the ground froze slightly.

A new postoffice has been established at Viena, with J. D.
(Bud) Berryman as postmaster.

Albert McIntosh sold on the Winchester court market Monday a yoke of aged cattle for $75.

J. F. McKinney weighed up 72 head of steers to some party, whose name we did not learn, at 4 cents.

Samuel Levy, of Mt. Sterling, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with liabilities of $11,000 and assets $25.

C. T. Grinstead, Deputy Sheriff was here yesterday. He will be here again next Thursday to collect tax.

J. W. Dawson and Bro. are buying all the eggs, geese and ducks they can find. They have quite a number on hand now.

W. J. Christopher is receiving his fall stock of winter goods and will talk to the people through these columns.

Thirty-six years ago last Wednesday night a snow fell in this county that weighted the boughs of small trees and bushes to the ground.

Mike Egan bought a dog-cat
from gypsies in Hancock county.
The animal is a perfect dog and cat combined. The body is a dog's, while the teeth, ears and whiskers are perfectly cat like.

James Harland Dawson is out scouring the country for geese and ducks. Mr. Dawson is paying the top of the market price for these fowls, which accounts for the large number they are accumulating in their poultry lots.

The Richmond Register has been leased by R. Lee Davis, who for some time past has been local editor of this up-to-date paper, and H. R. Pickles, experience.

Robt. White, of White's Station, sold to J. W. Bales, two car-loads of export cattle, wt., 1,500 lbs. at $1.75. These were tip-top ones, among the best sent from Madison this year.—
Richmond Pantagraph.

The compulsory education law, which is being enforced more rigidly in Madison county than in most other counties of the State, is overcrowding the schoolhouses in that county, and in several districts the school buildings have been found wholly inadequate.

Notice to Taxpayers.

I will be at Sams Thursday morning, November 3rd, 1898;
at Spoutspring on the afternoon of the same day; at Iron Mound Friday morning, Nov. 4 and at Fox on the afternoon of the same day for the purpose of collecting the taxes of the district.

Miss Nannie Jordan, aged barely thirteen years, and Mr.
Wm. Laurison, aged twenty-two, of Powell county, were married at Union City, Madison county, Friday. The county Clerk's records show the bride to be the youngest woman ever granted a license to wed in Madison county. She was so young that even after her parents consented, the authorities were in doubt as to whether or not they should issue a license or not.—Winchester Democrat.

G. D. Portwood, of Portwood, passed here Monday on his return home from Levee. Mr. Portwood stopped in our office a short while and proved himself to be a very agreeable gentleman.
We also had the pleasure of adding his name to our subscription list while here.

On the first page of this issue will be noticed an article copied from the Richmond Register concerning R. N. I. & B. railroad improvements under the new management. Since the printing of this page word has been received that Judge Barr has set the sale aside and has ordered a new sale.

Notice.

Persons wanting any kind of pictures made will please come at once and have their work done, as the season is now short and suitable weather to make photographs in a tent is about over.
Please come and have your work done without delay and thereby save disappointment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Chambers, of St. Omer, Ind., who have been visiting relatives in this and other counties, express themselves as being well pleased with this part of Kentucky, and they are both enjoying good health, which could hardly be expected, considering their age.
They say they were never so well treated as by the people of this section. They will start for their home the first of next week.

Another weather prophet has bobbed up and says we will have a severe winter because the rag weed is tall. His theory is, the higher altitude the rag weed reaches the severer the following winter. The wild geese may take their flight far to the South, the tortoise hibernate deep in the bowels of the earth, and still we have a mild winter, but when the rag weed grows abundantly tall it means deep snow. According to folk lore, nature provides a high rag weed so that the seed will be above the snow, thus providing sustenance for the birds.

Our little boy was afflicted foot to the floor. We tried in vain, everything we could hear of that we thought would help him. We almost gave up in despair, when some one advised us to try Chamberlain's Pain

we got a second one, and, to our surprise, it cured him sound and well.—J. T. Bays, Pastor

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr.
Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale

Interesting Quilt.

Mrs. S. B. Kelly, of Red Lick, Es-till county, has a counterpane made of cotton grown on a farm in the eastern part of Madison, now owned by Hon. W. B. Smith and known as the Simpson or Oldham farm. Mrs.
Kelly's mother was a Simpson. It is about seventy years old, and a fine piece of work. She has a silk and worsted quilt that she made herself requiring a year's time. It is beautifully embroidered. She and her daughter, Miss Lena, each have a calico quilt that required a vast amount of work, one of them having 3,792 pieces.—Richmond Panta-graph.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.

Two Good Stories on Lincoln.

At a cabinet meeting once, advisability of putting a legend on the greenbacks similar to the "In God We Trust" legend on the silver coins was discussed, and the President was asked what his view was. He replied: "If you are going to put a legend on on greenbacks, I would suggest that of Peter and Paul: 'Silver and gold we have not; but, what we have we will give'."

On another occasion when Mr. Lincoln was going to attend a political convention, one of his rivals, a liveryman, provided him with a slow horse, hoping he would not reach his destination in time. Mr. Lincoln got there, however, and when he returned with the horse, he said: "You keep this horse for funerals, don't you?"

"Oh, no!" replied the liveryman.

"Well, I'm glad of that, for, if you did, you'd never get a corpse to the grave in time for the resurrection."—Exchange.

The Nearest Man in the World.

We have heard of the meanest man in America. Strange to relate he is a Kentuckian, and lives near Lexington, and is said to own thousands of acres of land in that grand old county. Two little incidents will fully illustrate his meanness. He invited some friends from Lexington to come out to his place to shoot live pigeons from a trap. After the shoot was over he charged and collected from them 25 cents for each pigeon killed. Two of the party also gave him 50 cents for their dinners. He took the money without a blush. Not a hundred years ago he accepted the invitation of a gentleman living in Southern Kentucky to visit his home and shoot quail, which were quite bountiful in that locality. His luck was phenomenal and every evening he would return to the house with his bag loaded with game. Just as regularly he would ship the birds to Lexington, telling his host that he was sending them to friends. Instead every bird was sold to a famous hostelry in that city at the highest market price. The tip is well out in Lexington and Mr. Meanness is more heartily despised than ever.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Chas. G. Henning, a book-keeper in the bank of Louisville has left the city, taking with him $5,000 of the bank's money.

Gov. Bradley has re-appointed Judge Bullock, of Glasgow, George L. Willis, of Shelbyville, Henry Overstreet, of Owensboro, and Senator W. H. Clarke, of Jackson, members of the State Board of Equalization for the years 1898-99.

CLAY CITY, KY.

How few of us are really our own boss. The married men are subject to their wives, the bachelors obey their sweethearts, the old maids cater to their cats and poodles, while all of us bow to that weak thing called public opinion. We came into the world without our consent, we leave it against our protest, and while here kick at everything that crosses our path but all to no purpose. The old world wags on, not caring whether we live or die, laugh or cry, shout or sing, not caring a farthing why, till we turn up our toes and die and maybe to freeze or fry.—Exchange.

Unable to Say.

"Which side does that speaker belong?" asked a late-comer at a political debate. I don't know yet, I've only been here fifteen or twenty minutes, and I haven't heard him mention any names. I'm waiting till he gets through telling what good people his party is composed of and what rogues the other fellows are so as to get my own bearings.—Washington Star.

When a laboring man undertakes to support a family and a saloon at the same time, the saloon will grow rich and the family will grow poor.

An Arkansas lawyer has at the top of his business card the following Scriptural quotation: "If Demetrius and the craftsmen which are with him have a matter against any man, the law is open and there are deputies; let them impend one another." Acts xix., 38.
